THE FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT

Proceedings of the Meeting This Week in Goldsboro

THEY MEET HERE NEXT YEAR.

The Election of Officers—The Prize Winners—Not a Dissenting Voice on the Next Meeting Place.

Chief Jos. J. Stone and Banks Boone returned from Goldsboro last night where they attended the business meeting of the North Carolina State Firemen's Association. The election of officers resulted as follows:

President, Jas. D. McNeill, of Fayetteville; First vice-president, Jos. J. Stone, of Greensboro; Second vice-president, C. L. Badger, of Asheville; Secretary, Dr. J. W. Griffith, of Greensboro; Treasurer, T. A. Greene, of Newbern; Statistician, L. J. Taylor, of Newbern.

Greensboro was placed in nomination as the place for holding the next annoal meeting, and chosen without a dissenting voice.

"During the roll call of chiefs and assistant chiefs," says the Goldsboro Argus, "the president interrupted the secretary to read a telegram from the hook and ladder company, of Asheville. Mr. McNeill, before reading the telegram, explained to the convention that he had been in communication with the Southern railway authorities in reference to the free transportation of the apparatus of the fire companies along their lines, but not until his arrival in Goldsboro yesterday afternoon did the Southern notify him of their refusal to give free transportation. He explained further that he had secured an opinion from the chairman of the railway commission saying that such free transportation was not in violation of any law of North Carolina, and on that opinion the Atlantic Coast Line and the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley had agreed to furnish free transportation to companies along their lines. The refusal of the Southern railway to show courtesy to the firemen was sent to Mr. McNeill here after the Asheville company were on their way. He says he telegraphed them to stop and return home and save the expense of transportation, which would amount to about $300. The telegram to Mr. McNeill this morning from that company expressed their desire to come to Goldsboro if they could be allowed to compete for the prizes."

The steamer contest at 11 o'clock yesterday was won by the Newberns, of Newbern. This was a two hundred yard race and the steamers entered had to make that distance, make steam and throw water through two hundred feet of hose fifty feet. The score was as follows: Atlantics of Newbern, 3-5½; Newberns, of Newbern, 2-55½; Goldsboro, 8-15.

In the hand reel contest which came off late yesterday afternoon, the Atlantics, of Newbern, won first prize; time 30 seconds. Greensboro got second prize, time 31½ seconds.

TODAY'S RACES.

The following message has been received today:

Goldsboro, July 28—Newbern No. 1 wins the belt. Greensboro failed to get the nozzle on. Greensboro gets the first prize on the grab race; time 21½. Will be home at noon tomorrow.

Not an Issue.

Mr. Simmons is not an issue in this campaign. He is not a candidate for any office and no vicious and false denunciation of him will down the demand "we must take a look at the books." If Mr. Simmons had stolen the capital and carried it down to Jones county, would that excuse sworn officials from making statements which the law required? The character of Mr. Simmons is too well established in North Carolina for any slanders retailed by Mr. Mewborne to affect it in the least. It is the administration on trial and, when Mr. Mewborne sought to justify his refusal to give facts by a bitter and partisan attack on Mr. Simmons, he convinced every honest man in the state that the penitentiary affairs are so rotten that he does not dare to let the people have information to which the humblest tax payer is entitled as of right.—News & Observer.

A CHOPPING AFFRAY.

Two Men in Reidsville Have a Difficulty—One May Die.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Reidsville, July 28—Today Eli Chatham and a man named Mays, two well diggers, became involved in a quarrel which will probably result fatally for Chatham. Mays first tried to shoot Chatham and failing in this he picked up a chop-axe and struck Chatham a blow across the face, inflicting a terrible wound. Physicians were summoned at once and are doing all they can for Chatham but his recovery is doubtful. Mays was placed under arrest.

FRENCH CAPTAIN TO BLAME.

The Report of Court of Inquiry Into the La Bourgogne Disaster.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Halifax, July 28—The decision of the court of inquiry into the La Bourgogne disaster fixes the blame on the French liner's steamship. The captain of the Cromartyshire is fully exonerated from all blame.

The French liner was out of her course, an error of the French captain. New courses for Atlantic liners have been recommended.

Negroes Demanding Offices.

The Record is reliably informed that, at a meeting recently held in New Hope township, the Rev. Charles Hackney (a well known colored political parson) made a speech in which he demanded more offices for his race. He said that the colored voters of Chatham are not satisfied with their treatment by their white political allies, and that they must have some of the county offices. He said that they would demand and be satisfied with nothing less than one colored county commissioner and one colored member of the legislature, and that they ought to have also a colored congressman. This speech, or demand was received with loud applause by the colored people present.

Comment is unnecessary.—Chatham Record.

For the Summer Campaign.

The maiden glanced around the store
With eyes bright as the sun;
"I want a hammock, sir," said,
"Just big enough for one."

"Yes, miss," replied the salesman, as
Across the floor he paced;
"Here's something in the size you want,
How does it suit your taste?"

She looked upon the article
That he exposed to view;
"It's much too frail," she said; "I want
It strong enough for two."

Buggy and Harness Stolen.

Some bold thief, or thieves, stole a buggy and a set of harness last night from the barn of Lettie Edwards, colored, about four miles south of the city. The thieves left a horse tied near the road a short distance from the barn while they went to the barn and pulled the buggy to where the horse stood, and hitched up. Lettie seems to be an industrious woman and had bought the harness only a short while ago. The buggy has a new top and shafts and is otherwise repaired.

FIGHTING IN PORTO RICO

Miles Troops Now Nearing City of Ponce

THE TROOPS AT GUANTANAMO

Were Formally Taken Charge of By Uncle Sam Yesterday—A Transport Gets Lost.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, July 28—Sharp fighting has already taken place in Porto Rico. Gen. Miles is losing no time in pushing forward his army of invasion which, two days ago, advanced nearly to Yacna. On the road to Ponce the advance guard had to fight its way against the Spanish and as the country between Guanica and Yacna is very rough, it is not likely that the Americans had an easy time.

The war department is anxiously awaiting news from Miles, and expect something definite soon. What news has been received came by way of Madrid, but its correctness is not doubted so far as the statement that fighting has occurred is concerned. It is believed that the Americans began advancing on the very day of landing and that they were opposed by the concentrated Spanish force, and that fighting began toward evening and continued all night. It is believed that Gen. Miles is now approaching the city of Ponce.

UNITED STATES TAKES POSSESSION.

Santiago, July 28—The United States government formally took possession of the seven thousand Spanish troops at Guantanamo yesterday including General Linare's corps of eastern Cuba. The Spanish prisoners now here number twelve thousand, with two thousand at Holguin.

General Linares says there were less than four thousand Spaniards defending the city of Santiago on the day when negotiations for surrender were opened.

The deportation of Spantsh troops is expected to begin on Monday of next week, The health of the men in camp is improving, but many funerals have been witnessed in the city, the deaths resulting from starvation, exposure and fever among the natives.

TRANSPORT GOT LOST.

Off Cape Julian, July 28—One of the transports of the Porto Rico expedition, the Mobile, which sailed on the sixteenth from Charleston, got lost from the others. She had on board twelve hundred troops of the Sixteenth Pennsylvania and the Sixth Illinois regiments, under Colonel Hulings. Thirty-five of them are sick with typhoid fever.

The transport was found last night by the cruiser Cincinnati, accidentally, within gunshot of San Juan, and led her seaward. This morning she was led to the remainder of the fleet. It is understood that the rendezvous will be off Farjardo instead of Guanica.

ST. PAUL'S COMMAND.

San Francisco, July 28—Colonel Barbour has been instructed by General Merrian to assume the commandership on the St. Paul to Hawaii and after leaving that place Col. Stover is to command to Manila. There are five new caseses of typhoid fever at Camp Merrian.

DETAILED FOR SPECIAL DUTY.

Fort Monroe, July 28—Company F. of the Fourth Ohio infantry has been detailed for special duty and service with the dynamite batteries. Five dynamite batteries have arrived and the company is making good progress.

CASTELLO TAKING A HAND.

Paris, July 28—The Spanish Embassador Castillo has aroused the Spanish government to request the United States to transfer the peace negotiations to Paris. The Spanish cabinet is as yet undecided whether to send Castillo or other statesmen to Washington to enlighten and advise with Ambassador Cambon.

A Neat Sum Realized.

The "Patriotic Lawn Fete," which was to have been given on Mrs. Lindsay's lawn Tuesday night, but was postponed on account of rain, was given tast night in Mrs. Lindsay's hall and parlor. Despite the rain a large crowd was present and the young ladies realized a neat sum. Excellent music was furnished by the best local talent.

On Tuesday night Mr. Morton furnished the young ladies the corner room of the Benbow where they sold all the cream they had on hand. Few people knew of this, but Mr. Morton rushed a large delegation of traveling men down to the corner and the ladies realized about twenty-two dollars. They will soon be able to present Capt. Gray's company with a handsome flag.

TEXAS GOING TO NEW YORK.

Big Ships of Sampson's Fleet to be Sent Home and Docked.

Nearly all the big ships of the navy which have been constantly in service since long before the war began, are to brought to the United States for overhauling. Only one or two of the battleships and armored cruisers will be taken from West Indian waters at the same time, but the navy department has decided that the work must be performed as rapidly as possible and all available docks will be utilized.

The Texas will be ordered to New York from Santiago, and will probably reach the Brooklyn navy yard in a few days. Like nearly all the other ships she is suffering from splintered decks and bulged bulkheads caused by the concussion of the big guns. All the vessels to be brought home need a good cleaning. Their bottoms are befouled by the rank marine growth of southern waters, thus retarding their speed and reducing their general efficiency.

Few of the ships require repairs on account of damage done by the enemy's shells. The Indiana needs some renovating on account of the damage made by a shell that dropped on her deck one night and exploded when no firing was going on. It has never been ascertained whether this shell came from a Spanish battery or from one of Shafter's mortars. The Brooklyn received a number of wounds from the rapid-fire guns of the Cristobal Colon and other Spanish ships in the engagement of July 3, and the Iowa has an unexploded shell sticking in her side. The Indiana and the Iowa will follow the Texas to New York. The work on the Texas will take two weeks.

Just what effect the withdrawal of the battleships from West Indian waters will have on the programme intrusted to Commodore Watson for execution has not been disclosed, but it is practically certain that the expedition of the eastern squadron will be postponed until the vessels have been overhauled. Of the vessels under Watson's command the Newark is in prime condition, fresh from a navy yard; the Yankee and Dixie are in pretty good shape and the Yosemite is at Newport News, awaiting to go into dry dock for a quick overhauling. The Oregon and Massachusetts need a cleaning, but are not so bad off as the other armorclads that Watson may take with him.—Washington Despatch 25th

THE SIXTH TO DIE.

Private Hagler, of Greensboro, Dies at Camp Russell.

There has been another death at Camp Dan Russell, in Raleigh. This makes six members of the Second Regiment who have crossed the dark river. Private Hagler, of Company D. Capt. Gray's company who was left in the hospital sick when the company was ordered south, died yesterday morning. Speaking of his death the News and Observer this morning says:

Hagler was one of the first men to come to Raleigh with the Second regiment. He arrived before Camp Bryan Grimes was vacated and his first week as a soldier was spent at that camp.

When Camp Dan Russell was selected for the Second Regiment his company was transferred to that place. Two weeks ago his company was ordered south, and is now on duty at Port Royal, S. C.

Hagler was a young man of fine physique. He was not well known among the men now in camp, having narrowed his associates to his own company, which left here last week Since the departure of his company he has been too ill to make friends and only such facts as a slight acquaintance from another company could give could be obtained. A corporal who knew Private Hagler gave the facts as to his disposition, and says Hagler bore his sickness with great resignation.

At 2 o'clock the body of the private was brought to the city by an escort of twelve men. Chaplain Osborne rode to the Federal cemetery and conducted the services at the grave. Three volleys were fired over the grave and the soldiers returned to camp.

This is the third member of the Second regiment to be interred in the Federal cemetery in this city. The remains of the other three were taken home for burial.

OUTRAGES AGAINST THE BRITISH

Consul Wildman is Wide Awake and Ever on the Alert Watching Hostile Movements.

Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Hong Kong, July 28—Consul Wildman has transmitted the information to Admiral Dewey that there are three Spanish gunboats in hiding at San Miguel, Luzon Island, and four gunboats at Port Royal, Palawan Islands; also four steamers laden with tobacco at Cayagan, Luzon Island.

Admiral Dewey has despatched the cruiser Raleigh and the gunboat Concord to round them up.

The Spanish at Batan have committed several outrages against the British residents, several of them having been imprisoned.

Mr. W. S. Sapp Dead.

In last night's Concord Standard we find chronicled the death of Mr. W. S. Sapp, in the 72nd year of his age. He was the father of Mr. C. P. Sapp, until recently editor of the Telegram. Mr. Sapp's death was due to an attack of cholera morbus and occurred about 3 o'clock yesterday morning. He had been a member of the Baptist church for many years and was considered one of the best citizens of his county.

Mr. C. P. Sapp passed through this city last night going to Concord to attend the burial.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

Commenting on the selection of Greensboro as the place for holding the next annual meeting of the State Firemen's Association the Record says:

Good enough. For sometime efforts have been made to get up in Greensboro an industrial or trade display of some kind—a "gala week," for the purpose of advertising the town as well as having a big time and a lot of fun. On one account or another action has been delayed, the reason for such delay being good. Now, however, the opportunity is ripe for a "blow-out" on a big scale. True it is a year off, but this is a small matter. It takes a lot of preparation for such an event and while a year is not necessary, it is worth waiting for, for by combining, not only can a much more creditable affair be made of it, but the expense will be less in proportion. This is easily seen and requires no elucidation.

An arrangement can be effected whereby one part will not conflict with the other, certain hours being devoted to each.

The idea is a good one, and one which we heartily endorse. It is yet twelve months in the future, but it is time right now to begin thinking, talking and indeed to begin laying plans and making actual preparations. It should, indeed, be made a gala week for Greensboro.

There are several things to be considered. On account of a "misunderstanding" concerning transportation this year the tournament was not as largely attended as usual. Some companies did not go at all, and those who did were only partially represented. By beginning in time next year we feel quite sure that satisfactory arrangements can be made with the railroads, and if this is done the meeting will be the largest ever held. Not only will the fire companies be hungry for it but the prospect of a big meeting will bring hundreds of additional visitors solely for that event.

Then let our citizens, in conjunction with the Industrial and Immigration Association consider the advisability of making the occasion a big advertisement for the city in the way of a welcome week or gala week. To help the enterprise count the newspapers to begin with. Let everybody think about it and talk to his neighbor about it. Stir up enthusiasm. The humblest laborer can help. At the proper time let a mass meeting be called and consider the suggestion. Then get to work systematically. When you advertise your business advertise the firemen's tournament and gala week. Print it on your circulars, your envelopes and put it in the papers.

Keep it hot.

The time honored idea that "public office is a public trust" has been exploded by Mr. Mewborne. He deals with the matter of making a report on a public institution in which all people in North Carolina are interested as if it were his own private business.

Mr. Simmons is not an issue in this campaign, says the News and Observer; and The Telegram begs to submit that neither is the '97 report of the penitentiary an issue—at least up to the hour of going to press it had not been issued.

General News in a Nutshell.

An enterprising Kentucky volunteer—Private Sam Tudor, of Company L, Second Regiment—has started a day school at Chickamauga for the instruction of those of his comrades who cannot read or write and who do not understand arithmetic. Tudor has about twenty pupils and new applicants are being filed every day.

The women of Korea are probably the hardest worked laundresses in the world. Their husbands wear fulsome, baggy pantaloons, which come up under their armpits like those of a clown: and the usual weekly "wash" contains about a dozen pair of these. Generally the washing is done in cold water, and very often in a flowing stream.

The municipal authorities of Venice have petitioned the Italian government to take diplomatic steps to recover 6,000 pictures which were carried off by Bonaparte between 1806 and 1810, and which were appropriated by various Powers after his fall. The city also desires that a demand shall be addressed to Austria for the return of 135 pictures which were carried off by Emperor Ferdinand in 1838, in time of peace, for the galleries of Vienna.

The battle of Manila and the naval maneuvers around Santiago are to be represented in aquatic spectacles at the Madison Square Garden, New York, under the direction of Imre Kiralfy, who has returned to this country to make the necessary arrangements. The show has been presented for some time at Earl Court, in London, in an immense tank holding 16,000,000 gallons of water, upon the surface of which sixty vessels maneuver.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug rtore.

Notes of The Prowler

"It seems that lightning strikes trees and people and things these days more frequently than it used to, and I don't believe the negro-office-holding problem has anything to do with it, and I furthermore assert without the fear of being catechized by J. M. Mewborne that this is no democratic lie. I reckon it's because the trees, as well as the people, have more magnetism than they used to have. Some people have learned to remove their magnetism—or think they have—when there's a storm brewing.

"A few days ago a party of young people were spending the day in the country on a sort of picnic outing and a rainstorm came up. Simultaneous with the forked flashes of lightning one young lady in the party began to hurl hairpins and everything else which had metal or steel about it far from her. After partially disrobing she grabbed a pillow and covered her head with it."

After sitting a few moments in deep and silent meditation the Prowler drew a long breath and said: "Thunder and lightning—they are wonderful things ain't they?"

"I intended to attend the Girls' Home Guard patriotic lawn fete last night but couldn't find it. I might have found it, too, but I saw two fellows who attracted my attention. They were evidently trying to get there, too, but they were poor soldiers and would never do to send to Porto Rico. When I saw them they were walking along the sidewalk near the place where the fete was to be held if it didn't rain. There was a merry party of beautifully attired young ladies on the porch and when these two bashfuls saw them they stopped.

There they stood and would not budge. Two young ladies, evidently devining their embarrassed condition walked by them, intending to invite them in, but failed to recognize them and spake not a word. After waiting and wondering, possibly, how to make a graceful retreat, they walked slowly off down the sidewalk. As they passed me I heard one of them say:

"I am not hungry anyway. They've named the thing wrong—patriotic lawn fete—I'm so full of patriotism, now, I couldn't eat or drink anything. It would have been better had they named it "Starving Cuban lawn fete." If I could just imagine I was a starving Cuban, I could eat everything in sight and all the pretty girls in Greensboro couldn't run me away from the table."

Our baby has been continually troubled with colic and cholera infantum since his birth, and all that we could do for him did not seem to give more than temporary relief, until we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Since giving that remedy he has not been troubled. We want to give you this testimonial as an evidence of our gratitude, not that you need it to advertise your meritorious remedy.—G. M. Law, Keokuk Iowa. For sale by C. E. Holton.

According to the Hartford Times the people of that city are in a very parlous state. It is estimated that there are over 75,000 oaths uttered in Hartford every day, and all in despite of the Connecticut statute which says that "every person who shall use any profane oath, or shall wickedly curse another, shall be fined $1."

Among the personals in the New York Herald is one from "a gentleman, formerly of large means and clever ways, now being compelled to be a guest outside of New York," who "would like to hear of a way by which the humbug table d'hote dinners and breakfasts can be done away with."

Something to Depend On.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discouery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with la grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

TRICKS OF THIEVING.

HOW SHOPLIFTERS PILFER IN NEW YORK'S BIG STORES.

Women Who Use Clever Children Trained to the Business as Aids In Their Nefarious Calling—The Close Watch of the Store Detective.

Schools for shoplifters are not advertised, but they thrive. Female Fagins are no longer regarded as phenomenal criminals—they are considered well established enemies to the police. Vigilance versus shoplifters, though, is a contest in which the store thieves are invariably brought to grief.

As a woman leading a little girl passed from counter to counter in a Sixth avenue store one day last week another woman closely followed and never took her eyes off her. The woman with the little girl walked and talked rapidly. They asked for nothing; their eyes sought much. Their stops at various counters seldom lasted more than a second. When they had reached the jewelry department, their pace slackened. As they passed a counter where a sale of gold mounted combs was in progress the woman's arm flew out from beneath a black cape and back again. With the arm on its return trip had gone one of the most handsome and expensive combs.

On the woman and the little girl passed until they came opposite a tray of earrings. The clerk was about to return the tray to its case.

"What pretty stones, mamma!" exclaimed the child.

"Yes, my dear," responded the woman, "but we won't look at them today."

"Oh, yes. Let's stop. You know you promised to buy me some earrings for my birthday."

"I know, but your birthday is still far away."

"Why, mamma, you know that it is next Tuesday."

"My goodness! The child tells the truth. How time does fly! Well, we'll look at them, but I'll not promise you to buy them today."

Then begins the examination of children's earrings. Mother and daughter look at them critically—they admire most of them. This goes on for several minutes, the mother protesting to the child that the purchase should not be made today. Diamond earrings of all sizes are in the tray.

A customer steps up to make an inquiry. The clerk turns her eyes for an instant toward her questioner. One of the largest of the diamond earrings gives a flash and is gone. The little girl comes between her mother and the counter. When the customer is gone, the little girl has two small earrings in her hand and says:

"Won't you get mamma to buy me this pair?"

While the clerk smiles and the mother is saying they will call again in a day or two the large diamond earring is being fastened inside the cape. The mother thanks the clerk, then they hurry from the store.

They are scarcely out on the sidewalk before a command is whispered in the woman's ear:

"Return that stolen property."

The girl takes to her heels. A man follows and catches her.

The woman calls it an outrage. She protests; says she'll make them pay for the insult. She grows hysterical. They lead the two back to a side door. They take them into the searcher's room. Then the woman detective carefully examines all their clothing. The child cries. The woman becomes silent. She sees it's all up. What's the use of going to the trouble of making another scene? The child is 12 years old and has been but a week under instruction. Being arrested is new to her.

A society takes the child. Her teacher in crime, the woman who posed as her mother, is held for trial.

This is but a sample case. In the same store last week there were 15 arrests for shoplifting. Those of the prisoners who had never been in such scrapes before were released. This particular store tries to avoid the courts as much as possible.

One woman who was arrested wore a shoplifter's skirt. This skirt consists chiefly of pockets. There are pockets of all widths and depths. This skirt is usually worn as an underskirt. An opening is provided in the overskirt, through which the pocket filled skirt is easily accessible.

In the concealed pockets of the woman mentioned were found two pieces of embroidery, several rolls of silk braid, six remnants of silk, several pieces of jewelry and a pair of shoes. Two of the store detectives, a man and a woman, had watched the purloining of all these articles.

It is the rule of most stores that no shoplifters are to be arrested until they reach the street. Scenes caused by arrests are very undesirable in a place of business. Besides this, those placed under arrest in stores often make the defense that they did not intend to take the goods away—they simply desired to examine them in a good light.

One shoplifter, arrested last week, and one on whom the stolen goods were found, had six children at home. The youngest was 6 months old. The woman's husband has a good business. He furnished bail for her. When the proprietors of the store learned that the woman had a 6-months-old child at home they withdrew the complaint against her. The woman's husband said he could not understand why she should wish to steal.

Store detectives deny that there is any such thing as kleptomania.

"Kleptomania is a mistaken notion that some women have that stores are easily victimized," is the definition that the detectives give.—New York Telegram.

A bar of lead cooled to about 300 degrees below zero, according to an experiment of M. Pietet, gives out when struck a pure musical tone.

It has been suggested by the New York Times that unless General Toral be very different from the average Spanish commander his sorrow over the surrender of his army will be complicated with apprehension lest the careful and exact enumeration of the troops in Santiago province which is about to be made should reveal serious discrepancies between the number of men to be deported by us and the number carried on the official rosters. It is notorious that dead soldiers as well as live ones have been a drain on Spanish resources.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrated me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by C. E. Holton.

Struck by Lightning.

The residence of Mrs. S. E. Glenn, on Fourth street, was struck by lightning yesterday evening during the storm. The lightning struck on one side of the house, tearing off some of the planks and went through the building, knocking a hole in one room and tearing plank off the other. Miss Mary Conrad had just left the room and it struck within three feet of where she was standing. No one was hurt, and no great damage done to the house, which now smells like sulphur and powder.—Winston Journal.

Blood Brains Money

A sick man can't make money That's because his brain wont work. A horse wont do work unless he is properly fed. Neither will a brain. If the brain is not kept in good condition with pure, rich blood, it wont produce much.

Men who fail, and men who don't, often have what they call "Nervous Prostration." Nine times in ten the nervous trouble is purely secondary. The real sickness is in their digestion and in their blood. If a man keeps his digestion in good order, and keeps his body full of pure, rich blood, he is never going to be very sick.

Johnston's Sarsaparilla is made for people who want to get well and stay well. Sarsaparilla is a simple, "grandmother" remedy, but it cures. It purifies and enriches the blood and sends it tingling to every part of the body. That is the way it cures all ailments of the brain and nerves—cures insomnia—cures dyspepsia, rheumatism, scrofula, and every other blood disease. It clears the complexion, plumps out the cheeks, and brings back the sparkle to lifeless eyes.

One Dollar is the price, and One thousand Dollars is the health-giving value of every Quart Bottle of Johnston's Sarsaparilla

Two soldiers who were wounded in the battle around Santiago on July first passed through at noon on the northbound train. They belonged to the Third Cavalry and were in the thickest of the fight. Both of them were wounded in the hand. One had some brass cartridges which he found on the field after the Spaniards had been driven back.

HAS JOINED THE ARMY.

Claude C. Barbee of High Point Gives Up the Quill.

The manager of the Telegram's High Point bureau, who has efficiently filled that position for several months, has enlisted in the First North Carolina Regiment, and tells us he will leave on Monday, August 1st, for Jacksonville.

We part with his services reluctantantly, but bid him a hearty Godspeed. We feel safe in predicting that he will make a gallant soldier, and express the wish that he, along with the other noble Tarheels who have answered their country's call, may escape the sting of Spanish bullets and the scourge of disease. Mr. Barbee will carry with him the best wishes of many friends.

For the Porto Rican Expedition.

Troop trains began passing through over the Southern yesterday afternoon and have been passing at different intervals ever since. They are from Chickamauga enroute to Newport News where they will embark for Porto Rico. One brave fellow in the first battalion of the Sixteenth Pennsylvania, fell off the train last night and came near saving a Spaniard the pain of killing him. He was on the train which passed here at noon today, and was resting very well though badly disfigured.

His many bandages showed that he had been in the hands of a surgeon. More trains will pass tonight and tomorrow.

Appreciated.

West's excursion to Norfolk, Washington and Baltimore over the Southern as planned by the manager is certainly being appreciated by the people. The time you have in Norfolk, Washington or Baltimore (4 days trip.) Fare is remarkably low and you get value received for your money. You can afford to wait a short time. Remember the date Aug. 16th. Round trip to Norfolk $3.50.
